

15th Scientific Meeting of the NSMM

“The Whys and Hows of invasive fungal infections”

- or why do we get them and how can we better deal with them

Seminarrom 1 B2 U001, Oslo University Hospital, Rikshospitalet, May 24th, 2018

May 23th: 19.00: Dinner

May 24st: 12.00: Annual General Meeting for NSMM members

Opening ceremony

09.30 Opening remarks and welcome

Ingvild Nordøy, Local Org. Committee and President, NSMM

Why patients get fungal infections

09.45 Immunology and mechanisms: Why do people get invasive fungal infections?

Teresa Zelante, Univ. Perugia, Italy

10:25 What is in the genes?

Anne Puel, INSERM, Paris, France

11:10 Coffee break & Exhibition

11:30 Non-genetic disposition for invasive fungal infection
– data from Denmark and Norway

Liv Hesstvedt (NO) and Karen Rokkedal Lausch (DK)

12:00 Annual General Meeting

12.15 Lunch

Medical mycology on Iceland

13.15 Magnus Gottfredsson, Iceland

Antifungal stewardship – how can we get better?

13.45 The role of surveillance

Jørgen Bjørnholt (NO)

14.05 Better diagnostics and interpretation of findings?

Cecilie Torp Andersen (NO)

14.25 Coffee break & Exhibition

14.45 Better medical treatment?

Ingvild Nordøy (NO)

Young scientists

15.05 Presentation of ongoing projects (DK), (N), (SE), (SF)

15.35 Coffee break & Exhibition

Interesting mycological cases

15.45 4 cases (DK), (N), (SE), (SF)

16.45 Have a safe trip home!

Deadlines: visit www.nsmm.nu. Registration: first come, first serve basis.